

*FATHERS DAY WEEKEND
CAMPOUT
INTRODUCTION TO
RANCH COW WORK & ROPING CLINIC*

JUNE 17th & 18th, 2017

This clinic is horsemanship involved in working cattle, reading the movements of the cow, position of the horse in relation to the cow, & separating cattle in the herd. How to handle a rope correctly, roping on the ground and in the saddle.

All breeds are welcome.

Saturday & Sunday: Breakfast served from 8 am to 9 am
Get horses ready and in the arena 10 am
Lunch and Dinner will be provided Saturday
Lunch only on Sunday

Participants are allowed to stay overnight

Ropes will be provided or you can bring your own.
If you don't know how to rope, you will get introduced to roping at this clinic.

Clinic Location: Grayback Brushriders, 155 Davidson Rd., Williams, OR 97544

Instructor – Tom Wicklund
Performance Horse Arena
541-218-3260
please leave a message

Cost: 350.00 person/horse for the weekend event
If you bring a family member or friend 600.00 for two 20.00 audit fee per day
(100.00 deposit per person to reserve space – limit to 10-12 people)
printable flyer on performancehorsearena.com